Chief-Justice Deaderick, of the Sinto Supreme Court, Delivers a Saity Opinion on the Professional Conduct of Attorneys Prac-ticing before Our Crim-inal Court.

Chief-Justice Deaderick, of the State sureme court, at Jackson, yesterday delivered m oral opinion in which the professional oudget of certain attorneys who practice in the criminal court of Shelby county was very everely criticised. The chief-justice of the court said that some attorneys in Memphis appealed cases to the supreme court without any bill of exceptions or other objections to the proceedings in the court below, well knowing, unless they were incompetent to hold the high office of a lawyer, that there was no ground to expect relief for the accused from the surreme court. the proceedings in the court below, well from the supreme court; San Francisco, June 4.—The Working-men's convention to-day adopted a platform and eruel to the prisoner and unfair to the public, that an illustration of this disreputale practice might be found in the case of Charles Saffrans es.
